The 2024 Regional Elections Campaign is taking place peacefully

In accordance with Article 74 of Law No. 331, Electoral Law, and Activities No. 23 and No. 24 of the Electoral Calendar, the Supreme Electoral Council is conducting in peace and peaceful coexistence the Electoral Campaign period for the Regional Elections in 2024, which started on February 9 and will conclude on the 28 of this same month.

During this period, the Political Parties and Alliances of Political Parties in accordance with article 75 of Law No. 331, Electoral Law , in addition to their ordinary propaganda, may use the written, television and radio media; as well as digital applications, social networks, brochures, pamphlets, posters and labels with the purpose of showing their objectives and work plans, this electoral propaganda must identify the Political Party or Political Party Alliance that issues it and also prohibiting the dissemination of electoral propaganda that suggests a call for abstention and violence.

Compliance with Nicaraguan Laws

In that sense, this Branch of the State urges the Political Organizations participating in this Electoral Process to comply with the Political Constitution of the Republic of Nicaragua, Law No. 1040, Law on the Regulation of Foreign Agents; Law No. 1055, Law for the Defense of the People's Rights to Independence, Sovereignty and Self-determination for Peace; as well as the Ethical Standards, Resolutions, Agreements and Regulations, among others, issued by the Supreme Electoral Council.

This electoral institution highlights that it has the Electoral Ethics Regulations that regulate the Campaign of these 2024 Regional Elections, which establishes the ethical norms and democratic principles that must be complied by all Political Organizations, natural and legal persons participating in this democratic process.

Likewise, it is reaffirmed that the owners of media outlets, directors, social communicators, presenters of communication programs in any of their modalities, officials of the Electoral Branch, authorities and citizens in general are subject to the Electoral Ethics Regulation.

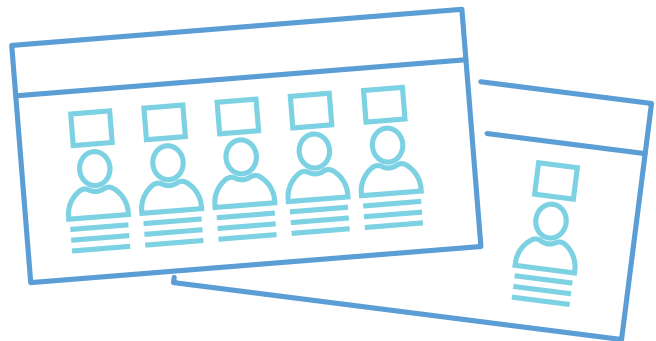

With compliance with the electoral regulations and the laws established in the Political Constitution of the Republic of Nicaragua, an Electoral Campaign is guaranteed in a climate of peace, tranquility, justice, tolerance and peaceful coexistence for the citizens of the Indigenous communities. Natives and Afro-descendants of the Caribbean Coast of Nicaragua in the next “Victorious Elections Caribbean 2024” to be held this March 3.

SEC initiates the printing of the Electoral Ballots.

Once the Political Parties and Alliances of Political Parties reviewed and approved, on February 9 of the current year, the official sample of the Electoral Ballot of the Regional Elections, the Supreme Electoral Council, on February 12, began printing of the Electoral Ballot to be used in the “Victorious Caribbean Elections 2024”, next March 3.

The elements contained in the Electoral Ballot are: the official logo of the Supreme Electoral Council, the number and name of the Constituency, box number, acronym, flag and name of the Political Party or Political Party Alliance, as well as the names, surnames, position of the candidate and whether it is Property or Substitution.

Likewise, other essential elements presented in the Electoral Ballot are referred to the security and authenticity measures that verify its issuance by the Supreme Electoral Council, which guarantees peace of mind among all participants.
